BY JOHN H. BYERS
Another local musical attraction will appear at the Rock River Assembly tonight at 8 o'clock. This is a nine-piece orchestra with the instrumentation carefully chosen and the members of the company selected with an especial thought for the particular part in the orchestration assigned to them. The members are strikingly costumed, and with a program as attractive as its costuming.

This organization has an international reputation. The organization has been heard in most of the great cities of the United States and Canada, and has also enjoyed the prestige of a continental tour, during which it appeared before the King and Queen of England.

Assembly patrons will be pleased, delighted and highly entertained with this company.

More Music Friday
Friday evening another splendid musical organization will appear on the Assembly program. This company, The Fisher-Ship, has been on the road twelve years and is one of the best known and most popular of them all.

Don't overlook the fact that Lorado Taft, will give a "chalk talk" next Saturday evening. Lorado Taft is well known by many Dixon people because of his work with a short distance of his city.

Mrs. Hill Well Liked
At 4 o'clock this afternoon Mrs. Hill will discuss at the School for Missions "The Travels of the Book." Friday morning Mrs. Hill will discuss community problems. This talented woman is addressing large crowds twice each day. She knows her subject "by heart" and she has the faculty to discuss its problems very nicely.

Miss Penick pleased so well that many wished that she could have been put on the program for an evening entertainment. She gave several splendid impersonations and her reading of the pathetic and beautiful production, "Peg O' My Heart," won the admiration of her auditors. Miss Pen-ick is a talented young woman. She is a southern girl and puts that southern inspiration into her work.

Dope Fiend Picked Up Here Yesterday
Harry Jarboe, of whom little is known, was taken in custody by the local police yesterday noon and is being held in the county jail for a few days. Jarboe was making a canvass of physicians offices begging for narcotics, when the police were notified and took him in charge.

At the police station, he admitted that he was a drug fiend and produced a hypodermic syringe and needles which bore marks of long and continued use. Jarboe asked to be sent to the state hospital at Watertown where he could receive treatment. City Physician J. B. Werren was called in and examined the stranger and found that he was suffering from an advanced case of tuberculosis of the bone in both of his legs. He is being held awaiting the return of County Judge John B. Crabtree who is in Freeport, when he will be taken into the county court and probably sent to Watertown.

West Half Bridge Floor Now Torn Up

The greater part of the west side of the Galena avenue bridge is torn up and the carpenters started work this morning laying the big steel beams to strengthen the floor of the bridge. Some of the steel beams which were not painted several weeks ago are being scraped and painted.
With the steel beams in place, the work of laying the heavy cross-beams and blocks will follow soon.

HOODOO DAY
The superstitious of Dixon and vicinity will be especially wary of starting any new work, leaving on a journey or doing anything else tomorrow. For it is "Hoodoo Day"— Friday, the 13th.

LINCOLN'S ESCAPE FROM STATE HOUSE IS AGAIN RECALLED

Illinois Great Martyr Made Springfield Possible Capital.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Springfield, Ill., Aug. 12.—Purchase by the State of Illinois of the Old State House at Vandalia, Illinois' first State Capitol, has recalled how Abraham Lincoln disappeared through a window there in 1839, broke a quorum and thus helped to bring about the removal of the state capital to Springfield. The state has bought the building from the City of Vandalia.

Lincoln at that time was a state representative. It is recorded in some histories that he jumped from the second story window of the House of Representatives to escape, being counted present. In so doing he broke a quorum and prevented the continuation of the capital at Vandalia. It was removed the same year to Springfield. Among some of the residents of Vandalia at that period Lincoln's disappearance was characterized as an act of "cussedness."

Vandalia's historic building comes back into possession of the state at a cost of $40,000. The transaction was completed by Assistant Director Thos.
G. Vennum of the State Department of Public Works. However, as voters of Fayette county deferred a bond issue for a new court house, occupancy of the building will be deferred. The county has leased it for two years at an annual rental of $3,000.
The rental money will be devoted to preparing a relics room and marking the window through which Lincoln vanished.

Attorney John A. Bingham, of Vandalia, in a memorial booklet presents another incident.

"While history records the fact that Lincoln jumped out of this window," he writes, "the fact is he stepped outside of the window and stood on the window sill and defied the clerk and sergeant at arms to count him present. If Thomas B. Reed had been the presiding officer he would have applied the rules that gave him the name Czar, and counted Lincoln present on the proposition that he could not be absent for cussedness and present for business."

It is also a historic fact, Mr. Bingham records, that within Vandalia's legislative hall in 1832, Chicago was granted her first village charter.

Gen. Gorgas' Body
Returned to U. S.
By Associated Press Leased Wire
New York, Aug. 12.—Simplicity marked the return to this country today of the body of Major General William C. Gorgas, former surgeon general of the United States army, who died in London last month.

Borne home on the United States transport Pocahontas, the casket was met at Hoboken by a guard of honor from the Thirtieth infantry and carried through a lane of army welfare workers. Captain Richard H.
Gorgas, the general's youngest brother, stepped forward and draped over the coffin an American flag. That ended the ceremony.

FAMOUS BAND, OPERA CO. TO COME TO CITY?
U. S. Marine Band and Dunbar Opera Ask
Chance Here.

The United States Marine band, a musical organization which needs no introduction in this vicinity, having played here about five years ago, will probably be seen here again this season. A representative of the nationally known musical organization is expected in Dixon in a few days to try and arrange a concert date here. The band is anxious to return to Dixon for another concert, having not forgotten the record breaking crowd who attended their program here a few years ago.

Charles Eastman announced this morning that a representative of the Ralph Dunbar company has come to Dixon for the purpose of looking over the field with the intention of presenting the opera of Carmen here in the near future. The company consists of 72 people, carrying special scenery, a band and orchestra. Announcement of final plans will be made in a few days.
The opera company are desirous of showing in this city about the middle of next month.

Nebraska Corn Crop
to Exceed Last Year's

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Omaha, Neb., Aug. 12.—Prediction that Nebraska will produce 214,964,000 bushels of corn, this year an increase of 30,778,000 over 1919 was made in an August crop report issued today by the United States bureau of crop estimates and the state department of agriculture.
Black rust damaged winter wheat at least 15 points while spring wheat lost 25 points from the same cause the report says. The winter wheat was estimated at 52,368,000, a reduction of 2,631,000 compared to 1919, while spring wheat production was placed at 4,421,000 bushels, 1,357,000 under the previous year.

American Cyclists in Olympic Contest

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Antwerp, Aug. 12.—American cyclists competed with ten other national teams in the 170 kilometer road race—the Olympic bicycle classic—here today.
Most of the route was brick paved with narrow paths of cinder or dirt especially constructed for bicycling, bordering the pavement on one or both sides, but some of the road was all asphalt.

Cyclists were limited to four competitors from each nation. At Turn-hout, about half way in the course, there was a control station where all the cyclists had to register and at about the three-quarter mark was another. There were several stations en route where the control was voluntary and one, a little more than half way, at Moll, where the cyclists could dismount, for refreshments.

Roosevelt Starts Long Western Tour

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, Aug. 12.—Franklin D.
Roosevelt, Democratic candidate for vice president, left today on a speaking trip that will take him through 15 states and as far west as the Pacific coast.
Three speeches are on today's program opening with brief addresses at Kenosha and Racine, Wis., and closing with a night meeting at Milwaukee.
Roosevelt and James Hamilton Lewis, former senator and now candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor of Illinois, opened the campaign here last night.

The vice presidential candidate addressed a large part of his speech to former progressives, exhorting Former-President Roosevelt and invited his former followers in the Democratic fold.

sent here following the anti-Italian disorders last week, was expected to be completed today. The last of the approximately 700 troops were scheduled to leave on early trains.
The Law and Order League, formed of citizens is now able to keep order.
With the departure of the troops many foreigners left the city notwithstanding assurances from the civil authorities that protection would be afforded them.

Lodge No. 7, A. F. & A. M., will be

PARK BOARD PLANNING BATH HOUSE AT PARK
Style of Structure is Determined Upon; Talk Finances.

A meeting of the park board was held last evening at which time plans for bettering the bathing facilities at Lowell park was one of the chief topics for discussion. The board has several plans under consideration for the erection of a permanent bath house at the park, one that will not only be serviceable but will be in keeping with the beauty of the park.
A canvass has been made of bathing beaches in many parts of the country and from these the board has practically decided upon the style of structure which would be the best adapted to the local conditions. It is hardly probable that any work will be started this season and the plan may be allowed to wait until next spring before any action is taken. The high cost of building material at this time is one of the reasons for the delay in building a bath house at the park this year. Plans for financing the construction of such an addition were also discussed at last evening's meeting.

to Exceed Last Year's

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Kansas City, Aug. 12.—The Kansas City board of election commissioners canvassing ballots cast in the recent Missouri primary election announced today what it believed to be the highest privet votes cast in the United States. They cost the state almost $1,000 each.

The official canvass in Kansas City disclosed that the socialist polled two votes, the Prohibition party ticket one vote and the Socialist Labor party three.
The cost of printing tickets and sample ballots for the three parties and defraying their share of the primary election expenses will exceed $5-600 and may run as high as $6,000, Dan Stewart, deputy election commissioner said.

Another Crisis in Turk Govt. Affairs

Constantinople, Aug. 10.—(By Associated Press)—Announcement is made that Damad Ferid, Turkish grand vizier is ill, and that Field Marshal Zeikis Pasha has been asked by the sultan to form a cabinet. It is said he has declined and that the task of heading of a government will be doubly difficult because of the hostility of the Liberal party to any negotiations with Mustapha Kemal Pasha, head of the Turkish Nationalists looking to a compromise.

Members of the Liberal Party support the entente in its dealings with the Turkish government.

Queen Cargo Found

By Associated Press Leased Wire Cleveland, Aug. 12.—Bade Ruth, famous home run hitter of the New York American league team who twisted his right knee in sliding into second base in yesterday's game and was forced to retire may be able to play in the third game of the series today. Ruth said this morning he hoped to be able to play but his physician's report was that it all depends upon how Ruth feels at game time.

After examining the knee this morning, Dr. H. M. Castle, the Cleveland ball club's physician who is attending Ruth, predicted that the New York star would be able to play this afternoon wearing an elastic knee bandage. An X-ray photograph shows there was no bones broken and no torn ligaments, the injury being only a wrench.

FINE WELCOME
Franklin Grove World War Veterans Were Dandy Hosts.

The members of Harry Altenberg Post American Legion of Franklin Grove are receiving many merited congratulations on the fine manner in which they handled all arrangements for the Old Soldiers and Sailors Reunion there Tuesday and Wednesday.
The veterans of the World War were in full charge of the affair and they did everything in their power for the convenience of the soldiers and their wives, meeting them at the trains with autos, taking them to the camp grounds and then to their boarding places, and giving a large number of them auto rides about town.

A hundred veterans of the Civil War enrolled at the reunion, many of them remaining over Tuesday night. The address of welcome on Tuesday by Arthur Crawford, member of the Legion, who spoke in the absence of Mayor Dr. F. M. Banker, was fine. The response were by Comrades Mitchell of Dixon, and Van Sant of Sterling. The program was carried out as published, with this exception, features of the two-day session being the exhibition drill by the Sterling Lady Zouaves and the address of Wednesday by John H. Byers of Dixon.

All of the sessions were well attended by the people of Franklin Grove and vicinity—the tabernacle being filled to capacity Tuesday evening and yesterday afternoon.

Meet to Pick Dates and Places Harding Will Make Speeches

By Associated Press Leased Wire Marion, O., Aug. 12.—The dates and places for the limited number of campaign speeches to be made by Senator Harding away from Marion will be selected with great deliberation by Republican party leaders.
It was said today at Harding headquarters that the task of sorting out invitations now was under way, and that although no definite speaking engagements in other cities had been arranged, one or more might be determined on shortly. It was understood that the subject was one of those to be discussed today and tomorrow in Chicago by National Chairman Hays, Harry M. Daugherty and other party leaders.

The plan to be followed in the front porch campaign, under which separate speeches will be devoted to separate issues may also be extended to such addresses as the candidate makes away from home. It has been suggested that one of the most important of these addresses be delivered in an agricultural section of the country and be devoted to questions of special interest to farmers.
Among those who have bid for a visit from the candidate are the Minnesota state fair and the Iowa state fair, both of which meet within the coming month.

Express Co. Prays for Increased Rates

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, Aug. 12.—Permission to increase express rates to absorb the wage award of the railroad labor board at Chicago estimated at $42-800,805 was asked of the Interstate Commerce Commission today by the American Railway Express company.
The express company also asked authority to increase by 20 per cent its rates on milk and cream to meet the increase granted the railroads on the same commodity.
The express company stated that the increase in operating expenses resulting from the labor board's decision would make its estimated yearly deficit $76,375,650. This deficit the company said, would be covered by the government guarantee until September 1 but after that it would require increased rates.

3rd International Meeting Has Closed

Moscow, Aug. 8.—(By Associated Press).—Members of the Moscow soviet met here yesterday for the meeting marking the close of the third international.
Leonard Trotsky, the soviet war minister, in a review of the world, said the great war had made clear the need of a new social status. The people's belief in the moral aims of the fight against the central powers, he added, had been shattered by the Versailles peace. German imperialism had been destroyed only to give place to a new imperialism. President Wilson came to Europe with his 14 points as a Messiah, only to discover that the British fleet dominated the world; that the Baltic sea was the "English gulf" and the Baltic states were British colonies.

Rock Falls People

Mrs. Allen and 10-year-old son, of turtle on the Rock Falls-Dixon road near Nelson yesterday afternoon. Mrs.

Allen was driving the car along the side road and when she turned to get onto the main road, the car swerved and turned completely over. The wind shield was broken, the top and fenders were slightly damaged, but both occupants escaped without injury.

CHICAGO CITY COUNCIL AFTER BAD LANDLORDS
Will Take Steps Today to Stop Rent Profitteering.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, Aug. 12.—The Chicago city council met today to make steps to prevent rent profiteering. An appeal for an immediate session of the state legislature to regulate action of landlords before the expiration of many leases on September 30 was asked in a resolution presented by Alderman Robert J. Mulcahy, chairman of the high rent committee. The resolution had the approval of the mayor and was addressed to Governor Lowden.
Increases from 25 to 300 per cent imposed by building owners on May 1 were characterized by the petition as exorbitant.

The resolution asked for more power for the city to control the housing situation and cited Maryland, New York and Wisconsin as examples of what Illinois law makers should do in the way of specific legislation granting the city power to protect its tenants.

Warsaw, Aug. 11.—(By Associated loaded with barbed wire, are stream-the battle front. Mingled with them along the roads are endless trains of supply wagons which are guarded by elderly civilians armed with rifles.

Women soldiers are hurrying from French military officers are showing extreme activity, racing around the Grain Markets Are Bullish on Opening

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, Aug. 12.—General belief that export business on a large scale was being done under cover had a bullish effect today on the wheat market. Unfavorable crop advices from the northwest tended also to life advices. Pit transactions, however, lacked volume. Opening prices, which ranged from 1c to 2c higher, with December $2.40 to $2.40 1/2, and March 2.43, were followed by a slight reaction and then by a decided fresh advance. Scarciness of receipts helped to strengthen the corn market. On the other hand, rains in the west, acted as a check on buying. After opening 1/4c off to 1/2c, including Sept. at 1.48 to 1.49 and Dec. 1.24 to 1.25 1/2 the market scored a material turn.

HARMON WEDDING—

On Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock in St. Flannan's church, Rev. Father Moore with nuptial high mass united in marriage Joseph Blackburn and Miss Myra McKee, two prominent Harmon young people. The bride wore a beautiful white creation of tulle and georgette with fringe trimming. The veil was of sheer mull and caught at the brow with a wreath of orange blossoms. Miss Agnes McKee, the bride's attendant wore pea green organdy with hat and costume. Both the bride and her attendant carried white prayer books.

John Blackburn, a brother of the groom served as best man. Miss Stella Long played the bridal chorus from Lohengrin. Following the ceremony, a two-course wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John McKee. Those who assisted in serving were Mrs. William Murphy, the Misses Mae and Ethel Courgan of Chicago who came to be present at the wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Blackburn left at once for Chicago where the honeymoon will be spent. After August 21 they will be at home on the groom's farm in Marion township. Mr. and Mrs. Blackburn have been great social favorites with the younger set and have a wide circle of friends and acquaintances who wish them a happy and prosperous journey through life.

WEDDED THIS MORNING—

Ervin C. Bond and Miss Ruth D. Near, both of Dixon, were united in marriage by Justice of the Peace George W. Hill at his office at 9:30 o'clock this morning.

PLAYHOUSE THEATRE.

"Earthbound," a new Basil King photo production of the unseen world, opened an indefinite engagement at the Playhouse Theatre, Chicago, Illinois, this week.

It is the first big super-production of the new season from the Goldwyn Studios, and is heralded as an important advance in motion picture art. Dealing as it does with the subject of life after death, it is extremely timely.

A large symphony orchestra and special features are combined in this presentation of "Earthbound." Included in the cast are Mahlon Ham, Iton, Naomi Childers, Alec B. Francis and Billie Cotton.

"Earthbound" has been more than a year in production and one scene in particular representing the interior of a cathedral is said to be the most magnificent ever staged for a motion picture.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC, STERLING.

A humorous musical comedy entitled "The Gumps," derived from the inspiration of Sidney Smith the cartoonist, will be disclosed at the Academy of Music, Sterling, on Saturday night, August 14.

It is described as "a brisk performance, interesting in characterization and unusually spirited by reason of the playwright's quick maneuvering of incidents."

The performance presented in two acts and six scenes.

The principal character, Andy Gump, has grown weary of the humdrum of domestic life in a bucolic community, and sets forth in a quest of adventure in the populous centers of gaiety. He decides to "Shoot the Shoo," at a Jersey summer resort; funny domestic complications deftly woven with laughter compelling incidents chase each upon the other in rapid succession, sprinting ludicrously back and forth from ultra fashionable to truly rural surroundings.

Added to this creation of musical and amusing fiction is a cleverly selected and excellent cast. The chief parts of the comedy are taken care of by James R. Fraser and Bessie Clifton, two players who have the talent of travesty at their finger tips.

Polish front at 350,000 men. The strength of the Poles has been estimated at 140,000.

Soviet infantry divisions to the number of twenty-six, the official details assert, have been identified as facing the Polish army with thirteen divisions in reserve. Ten cavalry divisions have been noted in active operation with two in reserve.

Besides the 39 infantry divisions on the Polish front, the Bolsheviks are estimated to have in other parts of Russia 25 others as well as two cavalry divisions.

Contrary to previous reports General Sergius Kamenoff and not General Brusiloff, commands the entire Soviet forces on the Polish front.

SITUATION BETTER?

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Paris, Aug. 12.—Dispatches to the Echo De Paris, from Warsaw today represent the military situation as greatly improved following the reinforcement of the northern Polish army in conformity with the advice of General Weygand of the French mission. Britain Takes Up Question with France

Paris, Aug. 12.—Great Britain has communicated officially with France with regard to the differences between the two governments, it develops from a statement made by the semi-official Havas agency today. The statement says that both governments are examining in the most friendly spirit the divergencies in views.

Poles Waiting for Answer from Moscow

By Associated Press Leased Wire
London, Aug. 12.—Premier Lloyd George last evening notified Leo Kamenoff, Soviet minister here that up to 9 p. m. Tuesday, Poland had received no reply from the Moscow government to Poland's expression of willingness to send delegates to the armistice and peace conference at Minsk.

Poland informed the prime minister that the Polish officer commanding the sector beyond Siedlce had just announced that the Russian peace delegation had arrived in that sector and not finding the Polish delegates had stated that it would wait until 10 o'clock Wednesday morning. The premier further informed M. Kamenoff that Poland replied that the Polish delegation was proceeding to the front immediately to meet the Russians.

Mr. Lloyd George told M. Kamenoff he trusted he would expedite the passage of the Polish delegates to Minsk. The premier called attention to the refusal of the Russian wireless service to accept messages for the Soviet government from Warsaw, as reported by the Poles, and said this raised a justifiable suspicion, and that it was not conducive to a prompt and peaceful solution of the crisis.

Red Army Claims Success on South

By Associated Press Leased Wire
London, Aug. 12.—Progress for the Russians against the Poles on the southern front was announced in Wednesday's official statement from Moscow, received today. Wlodawa on the Bug south of Brest-Litovsk has finally been taken by the Soviet troops, while they have captured Vladimir-Volynsky, east of the Bug. Further advances on the front nearer Warsaw also are announced.

French Surprised at British Attitude

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Paris, Aug. 12.—The recognition by France of the South Russian government has surprised the British.

ment of General Wrangel which appears to have raised somewhat of a commotion in England is commented today by all French newspapers the majority of which express surprise at the statements Premier Lloyd George made in the House of Commons concerning it.

They take the view that the British premier is not in a position to reproach France for this action, as they point out that Mr. Lloyd George himself began negotiations with the Bolsheviks without consulting France. The newspaper consider that the French recognition of general Wrangel is a strictly logical continuation of the government's policy.

The young folks report an excellent time.

Cope Scored Big Hit
Herbert Leon Cope appeared at the Assembly last night and for nearly two hours kept everybody in good humor. He was so full of humor that he bubbled over and everyone laughed at his wit. They tell us that he made millions of doughboys laugh. Of course, he did, for they couldn't help but laugh, if Cope used the same tactics on those doughboys that he used on the Assembly patrons last evening. Men like Cope do more good in this world of ours than they themselves realize. His stories are good, but everyone carries a strong lesson. You laugh heartily at Cope's story, but you think deeply at the lesson his story carries. Cope's tribute to his mother and to our mothers, is really very touching and beautiful. His appeals for better homes, better parents, better children, and a better understanding between father and mother, husband and wife, were exceedingly strong. His discussion of styles, both of those of the women and of the man, took the audience "by storm." Herbert Leon Cope, came, appeared in person, threw his talk out of his system, and even himself felt better after, and made a decided hit with his audience. When he quit talking, there were many who wanted more. They tell us that Cope is, "The Man Who Came Back." Well, we presume that is true, for it is quite certain that Cope can come back to Dixon, if he desires to do so. He will find plenty of people to welcome him and willing listeners to his line of talk, a line that many of us have not, but wish we had, for it puts, that kind of talk, puts life and sunshine in dark homes and sad hearts and blighted souls.

As usual the Dixon Symphony Orchestra pleased a lot of people last night with its short program of good music. That kind of music sort of starts a lecturer off properly. Cope said it did, and Cope knows, for he hears music and music everywhere he goes. "That's the kind of music I want to start me off right. That kind of music makes you feel better, makes your soul expand," declared Cope, and Cope knows.

HOUSING HOPES

Just when the housing problem appeared well on the road to solution it ran into some rough bumps and progress slowed down considerably.

Contracts for home-building during the first four months of 1920 totaled $1,114,415,000 in the territory east of the Missouri and north of the Ohio.
The same months of 1919 showed but $464,467,000 awarded contracts.

Another pleasing fact is to be noted.
Residential building (homes) was 31 per cent of the total building, contracts in April, which is the year's greatest building contract awarding month. This is to be compared with 19 per cent of April, 1919.

That's how it stood May 1.

Along came the "outlaw" railroad strike and the general railway paralysis, the car shortage, terminal congestion, freight embargoes, and—

The building of homes halted.

A recent issue of the American Contractor, New York, contains figures from 192 cities showing great recessions of activity in May. Big cities show losses more plainly than smaller ones; "chaos in transportation overshadows all other deterrent factors."

This, of course, means fewer houses this winter than would have been ready for occupancy through the building months.

Joy may be a miser,

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS
by Olive Roberts Barton

OFF TO SNOOPY SKUNKS.

"My goodness!" said Tingaling, the fairymen landlord, turning to the twins very suddenly. "I forgot to put perfume on my pocket handkerchief. You don't happen to have any about you, do you, Nancy?"

Nancy shook her head. "No, I haven't, Mr. Tingaling."

"Nor smelling salts, either?"

"No, Mr. Tingaling."

"Humph!" remarked the latter making a wry face. "A whole lot of vice to give you, however, before we start. He nice to Snoopy. Very nice!

The nicest you can be! And don't contradict him, whatever he says."

The twins promised.

"Where does he live?" asked Nick.

"Follow your nose," replied Ting-aling. "Just follow your nose."

So off they started.

They had no trouble whatsoever finding Snoopy's house which happened to be under a stack of rocks. But they didn't have to go inside, fortunately, for Mr. Skunk was just locking humphs! About twenty?"

"What's wrong?" asked Nick. "Are you going to a party?"

"Party? My eye! I mean, my nose!
Indeed no. I'm going to collect Snoopy Skunk's rent."

The twins looked puzzled at this.

"But what has perfume to do with rent?" they asked.

"No more than honeysuckle has to do with a soap factory," answered Tingaling. "Only it might be pleasant to have handy. Come along kid-does, we may as well go and have it over. I have just a little word of advising heavier and stronger and more elastic tubes.

Remember—elastic. A thing that is elastic can be stretched and will spring back to its former size and shape when stretching is stopped. The first thing one thinks of when elastic is mentioned is rubber. Now, every body knows that new rubber is more elastic than old rubber; also that good elastic rubber will become worn and spoiled by usage and by time; also, that there is a right way to use rubber to make it remain elastic longer, and a wrong way to use it (to abuse it) and so wear it out faster.

These facts are true also about the elastic blood-vessels—the arteries.

When a healthy child is born it has brand new, soft and elastic arteries.

As it grows older its arteries lose their elasticity, so that when old age is reached, the arteries are normally stiffened and hardened. That is to say arterio-sclerosis is natural to old age.

Some people get arterio-sclerosis long before they are old enough to have it naturally, and that is either because they inherited bad material for their arteries from their ancestors, or because they abused the perfectly good ones with which they started life.

Diseased arteries cause serious trouble to the heart and kidneys.
Such arteries, as they become stiff and hard also become brittle, and so may be easily broken. The most serious effect of such a break is when it happens to a blood-vessel in the brain, so causing an attack of apoplexy, or what is common called "a stroke" kills the patient. If he gets over the stroke, he generally remains paralyzed.

While a person cannot help having inherited bad arteries, he can often help a good deal in preventing the early disease of the arteries that he has, and so put off premature old age and much serious disease. He can also prevent his children from inheriting bad arteries from him.

Uncle Sam's

ARTERIO-SCLEROSIS.

Arterio-sclerosis is the doctor's name for hardening of the arteries.

The food is pumped around by the heart, and sent to all parts of the body through a set of tubes that grow smaller and smaller the further away from the heart they go. These tubes are blood-vessels which carry blood from the heart are called arteries. The blood is brought back to the heart from all parts of the body, through another set of tubes or blood-vessels called veins. These two sets of tubes, the arteries and the veins, are very much alike in the way they are built, but not altogether. They are like two sets of rubber tubes, the arteries being heavier and stronger and more elastic tubes.

THE BOOK OF ANN

After Divorce Come Memories of an Enraptured Love

"I remember how my father and mother parted," said Ann. "When love is dead—," my father began in a dramatic sort of way. "Love is never-dead for you my dear," said my mother. "It is always waiting—just around the corner." Then she opened the door wide and my father passed out. He forgot to kiss me goodbye!"

That stopped our talk for a few minutes. Perhaps Mother and Chrys were thinking, just as I was, that we ought to make an extra effort to be nice to Ann.

Mrs. Best took up her recital:

"After he had gone, I wanted to kill myself. I forgot about the child. I desired one thing only—to get to a place where I could stop thinking. My grave was the only place where I could find peace.

"Please remember that I had worshipped the man. I had slaved for him, petted him, humored him, stood between him and the things which hurt his nerves and spoiled his art. After the divorce, I forgot his neglect and remembered his tenderness."

"Never to feel his arms about me again! Never to stop his kisses with my lips! Why, that was impossible! I wanted him back—I would have him back though he offered me but the shell of his old love!"

"I wept by day—and bit my pillow at night. His first honest love had been so wonderful! The memory of it swept over me, engulfed me, and drew me down to despair. I went through the routine of the days with all my mind fixed on finding a short road to death. Memory tortured me—memory of our happy hours together. In the beginning we had loved each other more and more with the passing of the days. Love carried us to strange, new planes of experience where few human beings ever arrive, I think.

There was no limit to love's beauty.
Fresh vistas opened before us—until long after Ann was born. When my husband began to philander, his quest cramped our expanding souls. Our love was never the same again and my husband blamed me.

"When he had passed out of my life forever, all the first raptures of our love harassed me by day, and drove me mad when I should have slept. I wanted to kill myself, but I didn't know how.

"It was torture to face the duties of the day. On the street, I watched for a figure which towered a little above the crowd. I walked for blocks hoping that I might pass close to him.

The day came when I was too weary to get out of bed. Then my despair made me clever. I thought of a way to take my life.

"Next morning I started west with the child, handed her over to my mother's care, then returned to my home. Quiet, if not peace, possessed me. I set my business affairs in order, groomed myself perfectly, snapped the door of my house behind me, and smiled because I knew that when the sun arose again I would be out of the reach of the hurt of love.

"But the afternoon was not far enough advanced to suit my purpose.
I entered the tea room of a fashionable hotel, where I had gone many times with my husband. Sitting quietly at the table, we were accustomed to choose wouldn't hurt much, as a last ceremony, now that all my hurts were so nearly ended.

"But the waiter was obliged to put me in a far corner of the room. A man and a woman were at 'our' table. I shrank back between a pillar and a palm and ordered the usual things. I was surprised to hear myself speaking very evenly, for my husband was at 'our' table. He didn't see me and 'the other woman' didn't know me.

"I could take my farewell of him undetected. I would stay until they left the place, then the darkness of evening would have fallen and from it I would pass into the darkness of eternity."

CLAMMING INDUSTRY IN DIXON ADVERTISED BY ASSOCIATED PRESS

Great News Assn. Today Carried Story of Local Business.

The Associated Press today carried the following story of the clamming industry in and near Dixon:

Apart from the usual finds of pearls, the clamming industry at favorable points in the Mississippi Valley is prospering this year. Pearls are the clammer's sideline. His main concern is digging shells from which buttons are made.

The largest single shipment to date this year from Dixon was three carloads, some 150 tons of shells, which were dug from the bed of the river within a radius of half a mile. They went to a firm at LaCrosse, Wis. The buyer paid $70 a ton, which is the highest price yet received by the diggers, and the three cars represented $10,000 worth of shells.

Many other clambers have been holding their shells for higher prices. Since this shipment was made shells have gone to $80 a ton.

Along the shores and many of its tributary rivers may be found numerous clambers' outfits which vary somewhat in design, although all serve the same purpose. A typical outfit consist of a flat bottomed boat on either side of which is a rod sixteen feet long. Suspended from this are chains with six four-prong hooks on each chain, in all 600 hooks.

One bar at a time is lowered and dragged along the river bed, thus catching the partly open clam shell. Muddy water affords the best results, as the clams there open their shells for feeding and can be the more easily caught.

Spring and early summer are the best seasons for the work, as the spring freshets disturb the water making it muddy. Later in the season as the water becomes cool the clams bury themselves in the mud. The industry is protected by the game and fish laws, the season opening legally June second, and closing December first.

Clams breed in August and are very prolific. The mother weaves a sort of web around herself and young, and when caught on the clamming hooks as many as fifty or seventy-five young are often found attached to her, while many others are lost in the catching.

The workers' outfit includes as stove of some sort, the clams being boiled for an hour after they have been brought to shore. This opens the shell and enables the fisherman to remove the clam. One by one he goes through his catch discarding the meat which can be fed to swine or used for fish bait.

Each shell opened may bring a large reward for many beautiful and valuable pearls have been found in this way. As the clammer runs his thumb along the fleshy muscle of the mollusk he may find big pay for his day's work.

This summer on Rock river near here an eight-hundred and fifty dollar pearl was found, also one which brought one hundred and thirty dollars besides many of lesser value. Almost every tint from white to black is discovered, and exquisite pink and lavender being especially beautiful.

Every clam digger has in his cabin a tiny box lined with fluffy cotton. This is his treasure trove, and here are hoarded the findings of the day's catch. The experienced clammer knows the value of a pearl, knows about how much a flaw detracts, and knows the degree of perfection of the jewel, so that when the pearl buyer comes through the country the wise old river man is no novice to deal with.

24-Year Tubes Built by Miller only

It has taken 24 years to develop the skill which builds Miller Inner Tubes.

For 24 years Miller has built super-grade rubber goods. Miller leads the world, for instance, in surgeons' rubber gloves.

Their fine rubber goods are known everywhere as the "Surgeon Grade."

That's the sort of skill—the very rare skill—needed in building tubes.

Miller Tubes are built of "Surgeon Grade" rubber sheets. They are built layer on layer—sheet on sheet—up to the proper ply.

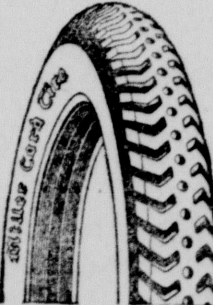

Then each tube is tested for hours under air pressure to prove it air-tight.

Don't buy tubes by guess. There are tubes not half so good as Millers.

Try a Miller—red or gray—and watch it. Then let results decide your future tubes. No extra price.

TERRIBLE TASTE REMOVED FROM CASTOR OIL

New Process Robs Old Reliable Family Remedy of Disagreeable Taste.

The chemists of Spencer Kellogg & Sons, Inc., one of the largest manufacturers of castor oil in the world, have perfected a remarkable process by which all nauseating taste is removed from castor oil. In the opinion of physicians and druggists who are already familiar with Kellogg's Tasteless Castor Oil, this remarkable improvement is a real blessing. It's the same old-fashioned castor oil that every physician prescribes. It's 100 per cent pure castor oil. But that nauseating taste has been eliminated. Strength and purity remain the same. Today you can take Kellogg's Tasteless Castor Oil easily. Children take it without coaxing or bribing. Do not accept substitutes. Sold by all good druggists. If you want a castor oil absolutely without nauseating taste, insist on genuine laboratory filled bottles, plainly labelled Kellogg's Tasteless Castor Oil. Three sizes, 15c, 25c and 65c. (Advt)

A WONDERFUL HELP

At Two Stages of Life Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Mrs. Fairburn Strong And Well.

Chattanooga, Tenn.—"I used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before my baby came when I could no longer keep up. It strengthened my back and relieved me of the dreadful effect which an often develops at such times. It helped wonderfully. That was my first experience with the Vegetable Compound. Years afterwards I took it during the Change of Life and got along so well I scarcely ever had to lie down during the day and seldom had dizzy fainting spells. I am now well and strong, can do all my housework with perfect ease and it is a comfort to me to be able to say to other suffering women 'Take Lydia E. Pinkham's medicine and be strong.' I will be glad to have you use my name if it will be the means of helping any one."—Mrs. R. A. FAIRBURN, 606 Orchard Knob Avenue, Chattanooga, Tenn.

For forty years this famous root and herb medicine has been pre-eminent successful in controlling the diseases of women. Merit alone could have stood this test of time.

ECONOMY

With 49 cars in every type of performance of from 5 to 72 miles per hour and over all kinds of roads the average was 18.9 miles per gallon.

24 cars were sent on an average 215-mile economy run in Connecticut, some over mountains and others on a level course, averaging 18.7 miles per gallon. One car with 35,000 miles service averaged 21.2 miles per gallon.

A Hastings, Neb. woman drove 109 miles to Lincoln averaging 28 miles per gallon.

Four women drove from Los Angeles to San Francisco and return averaging 22.3 miles per gallon and another Essex made the round trip between the two cities, 846 miles, with an average of 23 miles per gallon.

RELIABILITY

Reliability which is a larger factor in car economy than even gasoline mileage, was proven in every locality in non-stop motor performances and in long distance inter-city runs.

An Essex which had seen 16,000 miles service was driven from Columbus, Ohio to Washington, D. C., 403 miles, in 11 hours, 40 minutes.

Another Essex that had set the best time between Boston and Port Kent, on the Canadian Border, made four round trips within a week, totaling 4,052 miles.

An Essex which had previously gone 28,000 miles made a round trip between San Francisco and Los Angeles over a route of grades and mountain passes, frequently far from water supply, with its gear shift levers, hood and radiator all sealed. It averaged 22.8 miles per gallon.

Literally hundreds of tests like these were made in all parts of the country. What they reveal is exactly what you may expect from the Essex you buy. Can you place equal confidence in any car that has not so vividly established its performance?

Bipartisan Alliance for Suffrage in Tenn.

Nashville, Tenn., Aug. 11.—Democratic and Republican leaders in the Tennessee legislature who favored ratification of the federal woman suffrage amendment planned to hold a conference today to map out their fight for adoption of the joint suffrage resolution introduced yesterday in the senate and house. Senate and House Republicans were scheduled to caucus today on the suffrage resolution. Leaders said today that a vote might come before the end of the week. Speaker Walker, whom suffragists had expected would champion the suffrage resolution in the house, has announced that he will oppose it.
